Principal's Message

Whatever course your lives may run
I hope you pause for wholesome fun;
To look and laugh at pictures here
Will bring rewards of joy and cheer.
Though Father Time may change each face
And figures lose their youthful grace,
When double chins are hanging low
And balding pates begin to glow,
It sometimes warms the heart to know
You once were young and full of vim -
Before your eyes began to dim,
You had a taut and youthful face
That never sagged in any place,
Perhaps a dimple, tiny crinkles,
But not unsightly, horrid wrinkles,
And where those bulging muscles sat
The bulge has been replaced by fat.

Ah youth! we old ones hate to lose you,
And if we could, we still would choose you -
But now despite recurring schemes
To build the figure of our dreams,
Continued use of creams and lotions
Reducing diets, healthful potions,
We only hope to give at best
Our creaking joints a little rest,
To be, perchance, a little stronger,
Arrest old age a little longer.

So you who own the youth we lost
Prolong it now at any cost,
So keep your mind and body clean,
Your outlook calm, your thoughts serene,
And though the years may roll along
You still remain alert and strong,
The teeth you use are all your own,
You run without a wheeze or groan,
The youthful sparkle in your eye
Precludes the use of glasses - why
You're looking better than you did
As that disjointed, gangling kid
Who stares with such a sickly grin
Behind that weak, receding chin -
"Who put that horrid picture in
My book? of all the dirty tricks!
Way back in sixty-five and six".

Sincerely,
Harold Gerry

Jock McIntosh

President's Message

Twenty or thirty years from now you will probably have forgotten much about Hardisty Junior High, but maybe by chance in going through the attic or basement you will find the 1965-66 yearbook and be reminded of former days and former friends.

You may then recall that sad sort of ticking from the clock in the office, the long moments as you warmed the bench in the outer office, the cheerleaders' calls, the excitement of the intramural and league games, the late slips, the detentions, and the school elections.

You may be amused by the outlandish styles of the 1966's: Ringo hats, purple pants, bellbottoms, go-go boots and all the go-go fashions. Don't they look strange in the old pictures?

Do you remember the fun with the gang, the class changes, the lits, and the school dances? . . .

So long: farewell, it's time to say goodbye.

We are anxious to go, yet hesitant too, for there is something comforting about familiar walls, faces and accepted routines.

Do not think that we leave Hardisty ungrateful for the time, attention, and considerations, received from all those engaged in the process of our education. We all hope their labours have not been in vain and hope to prove ourselves in future endeavors.
